

Shooting Sessions & Courses

Shooting Session / Introduction

£4 per head – Maximum 12 participants - 2 hour evening or Saturday session including safety briefing.

Master at Arms badge

£15 per head – Maximum 12 participants - 5 x 2 hour evening sessions (1 hour presentation at first session). Final session includes a competition.

£18 per head – Maximum 12 participants - 3 x 4 hour Saturday sessions (1 hour presentation at first session). Final session includes a competition.

Does not include the Master at Arms badge – these must be purchased by your group.

NSRA Youth Proficiency Scheme

£20 per head – Maximum 12 participants - 6 x 2 hour evening sessions. 2 x presentation sessions, 3 x shooting sessions, 1 x assessment session. Includes student manual, NSRA badge and certificate.

£24 per head – Maximum 12 participants – 4 x 4 hour Saturday sessions. 2 x presentation/shooting sessions. 1 x shooting session. 1 x shooting/assessment. Includes student manual, NSRA badge and certificate.

On completion of the NSRA YPS course the Master at Arms badge can be awarded by your group - the NSRA course covers over and above what is required by the Master at Arms badge requirements.

Notes:

All sessions and courses will take place at the 3rd Tynemouth Headquarters, Billy Mill Lane, North Shields.

Session times: Evening - 7pm to 9pm. Saturdays – 10am to 2pm. However, all times can be changed on request.

Evening sessions can only take place on a Friday evening when the HQ is not in use.

Fees cover the cost of pellets, targets, wear and tear/maintenance to the equipment when required and in the case of NSRA course - student manual/badge and certificate.

Tea and Coffee can be made available for a small donation to the group, on a session by session basis. Please request this in advance.

All sessions are ran by a qualified NSRA instructor. If you would like my NSRA qualification number please just ask.

For more information or for booking sessions and courses, please contact Mick Barber on: 07794698748 or barbermick@hotmail.com